Subject: Violation of Child Nutrition (CN) Labeling

MEMORANDUM

Two manufacturers, Redi-Serve Foods of Fort Atkinson, Wisconsin, and Mauro Brand Products of Warren, Ohio, have produced and distributed CN labeled products without final approval from Food and Nutrition Service (FNS).

The products are:

- Redi-Serve Foods' School House Char-Broiled Beef Patties, CN number 041122; and,
- Mauro Brand Products' John's Beef Taco in a Crust, CN number 054508.

The United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) cannot assure the accuracy of the CN label statements for CN numbers 041122 and 054508; thus, these products do not carry the CN warranty. USDA will not issue these CN numbers in the future for use on any product. If these companies wish to manufacture the above products, they must submit new labels for final approval. Upon approval, USDA will assign new CN identification numbers.

If you have questions regarding this memo please call your assigned specialist or the general number at (602) 542-8700 or (800) 352-4558.
